"The more you come to know about man, the more you will discover about yourself - and realize that you are as fascinating and mysterious as any man who ever lived."

Philip Scharper

"Every beauty and greatness in this world is created by a single thought or emotion inside a man.

Everything we see today made by past generations, was, before its appearance, a thought in the mind of a man or an impulse in the heart of a woman."

Kahlil Gibran

Hearts were saddened by the deaths of Presidents Harry S. Truman and Lyndon B. Johnson, but Americans everywhere rejoiced in the death of the Vietnam War.

The 1973 edition of the Clairvoyant (Volume 23) was printed by the offset process on 168 pages of enamel finish paper stock and bound by the Taylor Publishing Company, Dallas, Texas. Senior portraits were taken by Askar-Shain Studio, Port Huron, Michigan. All underclassman pictures were taken by All-State Photo Company, Chicago, Illinois. The heading type style is Times Roman Italic, Style No. 75 Clc. A standard cover was round and back for 480 copies.
